Clutter Control: How to Organize in the Home Got the urge to organize? You are invited to join us when bestselling author Darla DeMorrow (Organizing your home with SORT and SUCCEED) presents her workshop. Learn how to declutter and organize your home and storage spaces. Learn the five steps to organizing any space, even if you hate to organize. Better yet, stop decluttering and learn to stop clutter before it starts. Learn practical tips for dealing with not-so-practical disorganization. If you have read all the organizing books, come learn the formula to finally make the changes you want in your home, so you can enjoy your holidays guilt-free and clutter-free. Copies of her bestselling book will be available for sale at the event. Seating is limited and registration is required.

Cook the Book A book club for people to discuss and share their cooking adventures continues. This is a great opportunity for cooks of all ages, skill levels and interests to share their love of cooking as well as eating, while trying new recipes from the library's collection. To participate registrants must visit the library and choose a recipe from among the cookbooks selected for the discussion – Family Dinner Staff will photocopy your selected recipe, giving you a copy as a participant. Lastly, you make one recipe, no need to double it, and bring it to the first book club meeting at the library. While you sample and taste the various foods, we'll discuss all things pertinent to the recipe. The Library provides the plates, napkins & utensils. Discussion runs from 2:00pm-3:30pm

Fantastic Beasts Craft Party Join us for a fantastic time! We will be having crafts, butter beer, and trivia to celebrate the release of the second Fantastic Beasts movie. This event is for ages 8-18. Spaces are limited and registration is required.

Furniture of the Victorian Era and Gilded Age
